

EDI Workshop: Anti-Racism

London - 15th April 2026

A half-day anti-racism workshop with Tahmina Hussain

This workshop is for IBMS members and will be facilitated by IBMS Council member and head of the IBMS Equality, Diversity and Inclusion Working Group, Tahmina Hussain.

- Date: 15th April
- Time: 11am – 4pm
- Location: Institute of Biomedical Science, 12 Coldbath Square London EC1R 5HL

Anti-racism is about actively identifying and opposing racism by challenging the systems, behaviours and beliefs that perpetuate inequality. As part of our ongoing commitment to equality, diversity and inclusion, and as an opportunity for continuing professional development, this workshop invites colleagues to reflect on and strengthen their understanding of antiracism.

Together, we will explore practical approaches to inclusion and allyship to create a more equitable and respectful environment for everyone.

The workshop will focus on:

- Increasing confidence in recognising and challenging racism.
- Developing an understanding of the impact of racism on staff and students.
- Exploring the role of an active bystander in challenging and dismantling.
- Racism in the workplace
- Acquiring practical skills and approaches for creating an anti-racist and inclusive environment for staff and students.

Tickets cost £40. To book a place on this workshop, please scan the QR code.
