

Manchester Bacteriology Discussion Group

Presents:

'The Last Days of Smallpox: Tragedy in Birmingham'

By Prof. Mark Pallen

Tuesday 12th March 2019

<https://amzn.to/2TDGmdX>

Register attendance at bit.ly/2UQf7Ns

Venue: Room E249, John Dalton
Building, Manchester Metropolitan University, M1 5GD

Parking available at MMU Chester Rd car park.
Buffet at 6.30pm, followed by the talk in E221.

Manchester Bacteriology Discussion Group

Programme for 2018/19:

- 9 Oct 'Bacteriology: Then and Now' by Bill Hyde
- 13 Nov 'Resistance is Ancient: Hunt for Antimicrobial agents, & Research in Polar Environments' by Ravind Bhangal
- 15 Jan 'Clinical Utility of Respiratory multiplex PCR: Case Reviews'
- 12 Feb 'ECMO: your life in their hands' by Dr Stephanie Thomas
- 12 Mar 'The Last Days of Smallpox: the Birmingham Outbreak'
by Prof Mark Pallen (JHIN book review bit.ly/2WpeSKK)
- 14 May 'Syphilis' by Dr Andrew Turner

All titles and speakers subject to change

Venue: Room E249, John Dalton Building,
Manchester Metropolitan University, M1 5GD

Parking available at Chester Rd car park.
Buffet at 6.30pm, followed by talk in E221

Manchester
Metropolitan University