Company Members will receive a monthly copy, along with our quarterly British Journal of Biomedical Science.
- Discounted advertising in the IBMS diary, sent out to over 18,000 members
- Access to IBMS Advisory Panels and other experts in the field, to offer you guidance and advice as specialists in their discipline
- Contact with the IBMS Region and Branch network, many of which also have specialist discussion groups, meetings and trade shows
- Access to our London meeting rooms
- Free entry into our Company Members listing directory
- Use of Company Members special logo, letterhead and literature - an easy way to demonstrate your affinity within the diagnostic industry
- Access to the Members' Area of the IBMS website and online forums

Company Members Liaison Group

The IBMS Company Members committee works closely with IBMS committees and staff to organise our Congress and strengthen links between biomedical science companies and IBMS members.

"Open-forum communication between all aspects of the industry, trade association, professional body and working parties is essential for the future of all in this continually changing and challenging business.

The partnership between the IBMS and its Company Members continues to be extremely important."

Mark Reed, IBMS Company Members Liaison Group Chair
